

Special Sale of VELVET HATS

L. E. French
59 Eastern Avenue

BIG DANCE of the Season

Monday, Oct. 19
Bertrand's Hall

SEE EXHIBITION
OF CORRECT
MODERN DANCES

TINKER'S
FAMOUS SINGING
ORCHESTRA

7 PIECES 7

BARNET
The Walker-Brock Wedding—Some History of the Sherburne Moore House.
On Wednesday, Oct. 7th, at 8 p. m., Miss Mary Brock was married to Waldo Webster Walker, M. D. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brock, in Barnet. The parlor was attractively decorated and at the appointed hour Mrs. Charles Stewart playing the wedding march, the bridal party took its place under a stately arch where the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. E. Brownlee, the double ring service being used. After congratulating the bride and groom, Mr. Brock, a brother of Mrs. Walker, a delightful feature of this visit will be the presence of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brock, who are planning to visit their son at the same time.
Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Albee and Marjorie, Mrs. Charlotte Dow and Laura, Mr. and Mrs. Will Brock and Mr. and Mrs. Sherburn Moore attended the

Last Excursion to NEW YORK

via the Central Vermont Railway
New London and Steamer
Tuesday,
October 20th
ONLY $7.00 ONLY

For the Round Trip

Tickets good going on train leaving Cambridge Jct. 9-20 A. M., due New York 7-30 A. M., the morning of October 21st; final return limit to leave New York up to and including October 27th. Staterooms on steamer $1.00 for inside room up to $1.50 and $2.00 for outside room. Make application to

W. J. GRANT, Ticket Agent,
New London, Conn.
and state kind of room desired.

SAXON $395.00

The SAXON RUNABOUT has a record of 34.75 miles per gallon of gasoline. Think this over before you buy a Roadster. We have a 1915 car in stock. Call and we will be pleased to make demonstrations.

A. E. Counsell & SON

Phone 218

AT this season we are busy supplying SEWER PIPE (we carry five cars all the time) and LAND TILE for the farmers for draining wet land, they're using more and more, and ATLAS CEMENT, remember the Panama Canal is made entirely of ATLAS CEMENT, and PERFECTION PULP PLASTER.

Colonial (rubber style) Roofing is guaranteed first-class, for all roofs, at 1/2 the price of tin, 1/2 the price of shingles, and won't set your buildings on fire when exposed to falling sparks, easy to lay, although a comparatively new style of roof, yet it is a staple seller.

We sell
Colonial Paint

and if we knew of any better kind we would sell it.

THE PECK COMPANY
St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Potts-Stanley wedding at St. Johnsbury Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stanley spent the night and the next day with the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherburn Moore. That house holds quite a history in connection with both families. It was at one time the home of the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Stanley; also the birthplace of the groom's father as well as his oldest brother. His father and mother began their married life there and the bride's grandparents live there at present and celebrated their golden wedding anniversary there this summer. The couple left Friday afternoon for their home in Nebraska.
Tensions had been offered by some 40 persons, who were witnesses to the marriage, a collation was served by Mrs. Herbert Brock, assisted by the Misses Phoebe Harvey and Alice Bearce, the two young ladies being professional friends of the bride, having been associated with her in hospital work in Boston. Miss Lura McLaren presided at the punch bowl. Dr. and Mrs. Walker and remaining for a few days with friends in Barnet after which they go to Clatsop, Neb., where they will visit the parents of Dr. Walker. The journey will be made by way of Montreal and St. Louis. In the last named city a visit will be made at the home of Harry Marjorie Albee did not return to her school at Lyndon this week on account of being exposed to scarlet fever at the Potts-Stanley wedding last week. Laura Dow was also exposed.

Mrs. Abbie Harvey has gone to Ryegate to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Wood. The delegates who attended the C. E. Convention at Newport last week gave a very interesting report of that convention at the meeting Sunday evening.
George Blair spent Sunday with his father, James Blair, at East Barnet.

The Christian Endeavor Society will hold a social at the home of Eugene Willson Thursday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCondaeh spent Friday night in Peacham and attended the play, "The Hall of Fame."
Julia Johnston died at her home here Thursday Oct. 8 after a long illness. She was tenderly cared for by her sister, Mrs. Ellen Smith. She had been for 58 years a member of this church, joining as one of the charter members and is the last one of them. She was a faithful, earnest church worker and attended church regularly until prevented by the infirmities of age. She was a kind neighbor and a person who will be missed in the village. She was 84 years old. The funeral was held at the house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. W. C. Clark officiating. She leaves to mourn her loss her sister, Mrs. Ellen Smith and some nephews, besides many friends. Interment was in the cemetery in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Garfield from North Craftsbury visited at Walter Kendall's and Chester Somers' last Thursday.

Mrs. Lillian Kay, Mrs. Niblock and Mrs. Orpha McDowell from East Barnet attended the harvest dinner Friday.

Tom Priest was operated on at Brightlook Hospital last Thursday. He is doing as well as could be expected.

Hiram Gillilan is working in a restaurant in Woodsville.
The amount taken from the harvest dinner and supper was $19 and a few cents, which was nearly all clear.

There was a meeting of the book committee to select new books for the library, Saturday afternoon.

Walter Sampson from Springfield, Mass., spent Sunday at E. B. Chase's. Miss Anna Boardman from Hampton, N. H., is spending a few days with Mrs. Ira Albee, coming to attend the Potts-Stanley wedding at St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Frank Cheney had quite a serious illness one day last week but is better again.

Fred Webster got his thumb caught in the matching machine at East Barnet last week. His thumb was cut very badly but will not have to be amputated.

Ranale Champany has moved his family from the John Champany house into the Ballou block into the tenement recently vacated by Joe Fernoff.

The date of the chicken pie supper and sale at Barnet Center has been changed from the 21st of Oct. to the 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gillilan and Florence and Mrs. Claud Gillilan started Sunday morning for Boston. They will visit Ruth Wilder and Mr. Wilbur Davidson in Brighton and attend the big league game in Boston returning home the last of the week.

Miss Jennie Martin from South Dakota spent last week with Mrs. James Cade.

PASSUMPSIC

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wood spent Sunday with their parents in Kirby. They are painting the church and parsonage and laying new cement walks.

Mrs. Maude Symes, who has been visiting in Montreal, returned Thursday night accompanied by Mrs. Alex Trotter of the same place.

Mrs. Alma Goodall of St. Johnsbury is visiting at W. H. Wright's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Somerville and son Paul spent Sunday at W. H. Barker's.

Mrs. Theodore Arnholz of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Bernice Owen of St. Johnsbury and Mr. Hawkins of Morrisville have been visiting at Mrs. Margaret Sawyer's.

Mrs. Rhodes of St. Johnsbury is working at Theo. Chase's.

The Sunday School State convention will be held at Barre Oct. 21-22.

The Ladies Mission Circle will give their annual harvest dinner at the church Wednesday.

The Grace Mason Club will meet in the vestry Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Harlan Hale died at Brightlook Hospital Monday morning after a short illness of acute Bright's disease. She leaves a husband and two adopted children. The funeral was held at her home in Waterford Wednesday.

nesday, Rev. Mr. Martin of St. Johnsbury officiated. The interment was at Passumpsic.
Mrs. O. N. Pinney will attend the district meeting of the New England Order of Protection at Wolcott.
Mrs. O. N. Pinney will go Saturday to New York to visit relatives.

MONROE

Rev. D. E. Burns attended the Union Preachers meeting at Canaan last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hinman were in St. Johnsbury last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Fred Guyer. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Graham of Waltham, Mass., and Mrs. Althea Morse of Concord have been visiting at Arthur Metcalf's.

Miss Alberta Nelson of Passumpsic spent Sunday with her parents here.

Mrs. G. L. Frazer spent Saturday at Barnet.

Mrs. D. E. Burns and Madalyn went Wednesday to Waltham, Mass., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Hosford. John Colby and family of Woodsville were at C. H. Hosford's Sunday.

Misses Mary Fisher and Ethel Duncan were at home from Sheffield over Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Cross was in Woodsville Monday.

Mrs. G. L. Frazer and Miss Mabel Frazer were in Woodsville Wednesday.

George Webster and Mrs. Helen Boddett of Newbury and Mrs. Ida Pike of Groveton motored here Monday to call on friends. Mr. Webster will celebrate his 95th birthday soon.

Mrs. Lizzie Dunn of Littleton, N. H., is visiting Mrs. Page.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Clara Shepherd Wednesday afternoon.

Quite a party of young people from Melndoes and Monroe climbed Hunt mountain Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Gibson and Robert were in Woodsville and Bath last Wednesday.

RYEGATE

Great Exhibit of Vegetables By The Children At The Grange Fair.

Blue Mountain Grange No. 262, held its fourth annual fair at Grange hall Friday evening, Oct. 9th. The leading attraction was the public exhibit of the vegetables raised by the children who had taken part in the garden contest. Seeds were given out in the spring by the Grange with the understanding that the children were to plant and care for the gardens and bring a sample of their products to exhibit at the annual fair. Prizes were awarded as follows: Class A (over 10 years of age), the $1 prize for best complete exhibit of vegetables grown from seed furnished was awarded to Richard Sargent. First second and third were awarded as follows: Vegetables, potatoes, first Goble children, second Clyde and Miles Nelson, third Richard Sargent; cabbage, first Leroy Nelson, second Richard Sargent, third Raymond Thompson; carrots, first Richard Sargent, second Florence Nelson, third Lauchlin Taylor; beets, first Leroy Nelson, second Florence Nelson, third Lauchlin Taylor. Class B (under 10 years of age), the $1 prize for the best complete exhibit was awarded to Richard Sargent. First, second and third awarded as follows: Vegetables, potatoes, first Roland Sargent, second Dean Cochran, third Merrill Jolliffe; cabbage, first Roland Sargent, second Joyce Murray; carrots, first Roland Sargent, second Joyce Murray; beets, first Roland Sargent, second Joyce Murray. From the sale of home-made candy, ice cream, fancy and useful articles the profits of the evening amounted to about $35.00.

The workmen in charge of placing the town clock, the gift of the late John Cameron, on the United Presbyterian church have completed the work and the citizens for a distance out can now enjoy the benefaction of their one time townsman.

The Cameron Brothers were in the village during the past week looking over a site in the cemetery where will be erected a historical monument. The monument is to be 30 feet high and bear the Cameron family lineage.

GREENSBORO

Death of Frank Dufur After Long Illness—Personal.

Frank Dufur passed away Sunday morning after a long and painful illness. About a year and a half ago he had one leg amputated for a diseased bone and for a time seemed to be gaining but for the past few months has been gradually failing and for several weeks has been confined to his bed. He was 19 years of age and a favorite with the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barrington visited in Chester last week, making the trip by W. H. Miller's auto.

J. A. Goss has been quite seriously ill for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jackson were in Barton Friday.

Mr. Bradford of Barre visited his daughter, Mrs. W. S. Ingalls, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Blake of West Braintree, Mass., are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Wright. Mrs. Blake will be remembered as Miss Wright of this town but who has made her home in Massachusetts for several years.

The executive committee of the Congregational society are having a new bath room put in the parsonage.

Mrs. Mary Ingalls and Mrs. Nellie Ingalls returned from a few days visit in Burlington, Wednesday.

The Greensboro Mill Company have been repairing their concrete dam at the mill.

Mrs. Ransom gave a very interesting talk at the Congregational church Sunday morning about the people of Natal, South Africa, where she and her husband have labored for the past 24 years.

Fred Messer was up from Montpelier last week for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase of Hardwick called on friends in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris have gone to New York for a few days.

Wednesday afternoon there was a pretty church wedding at the Presbyterian church when Mr. Payson Morse and Miss Mabel Gills, popular young people of the town, were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. F. S. Collins. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers and well filled with invited guests. The wedding march was played by Mr. Frank Hardy of Manchester, N. H.

Miss Mary Stimpson has returned to Montpelier for the winter.
Mrs. Marjorie Dombroski has gone to St. Johnsbury.
George Howard of New York visited his brother Merle last week.

GRANBY

The Rev. George Smith and wife of Concord were in town Wednesday calling on friends.

L. C. Chappell, who has been ill for three months, was able to ride to Concord one day this week.

Mrs. A. W. Shores has returned from her trip to Gorham and Brunswick accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Augusta Kelley of Gorham.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Shores spent Wednesday and Thursday in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacroix of St. Johnsbury are working for J. L. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Drew of Glover were in town Sunday. They came in their auto.

C. W. Matthews, A. W. Shores and A. J. Smith attended the auction at Henry Ranney's in Kirby on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Walter and family of East Haven visited at her father's, W. M. Shores, Sunday.

NEWARK

Mrs. Delbert Joyce of Colebrook, N. H., is ill with erysipelas at Oscar Buzzell's.

Calvin Geer and Miss Gladys Chaplin were married at West Burke, Thursday, Oct. 8. They are spending a few days at Coventry.

Henry Duval and wife of Burke Hollow were guests at Fred Simpson's, Sunday.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

THRIFT

IS A VERY IMPORTANT PART OF
THE CHILD'S

EDUCATION

THE SAVINGS BANK IS A GREAT EDUCATOR

This Bank in over 60 years has grown to be one of the Strong Banks of the State due to careful and conservative management.

Deposit your

THRIFT MONEY

WITH US

PASSUMPSIC SAVINGS BANK

T. M. HOWARD, PRES.

W. P. SMITH, VICE-PRES.

R. C. BAKER, TREAS.

One Forgets Price In Time But Remembers Quality

Haven't you found it so? For instance—haven't you some bit of jewelry, bought years ago, which you can only vaguely recall cost a fairly round sum, yet vividly enough you can remember it for its fine quality and exquisite workmanship?

It is quality, as the old saying goes that one remembers, and it is quality that counts.

That is why this is a quality shop.

In selecting a gift one need not sacrifice either quality, style or workmanship to obtain a piece of inexpensive jewelry.

Our gold jewelry with or without semi-precious stones and the many modest effects with diamonds, sapphires, pearls, amethysts, etc., have been made by skilled jewelers, in conformity with the highest standard of design and workmanship and in thorough accord with the fashion of the day.

The intrinsic value of a gift of gold jewelry from our establishment is assured by the fact that we sell nothing that is not fully guaranteed.

Solid Gold Pendants,	$1.50 to $25.00
Solid Gold Brooches,	1.50 to 30.00
Solid Gold Locketts,	2.00 to 12.00
Solid Gold Scarf Pins,	1.50 to 20.00
Solid Gold Cuff Links, Tie Clips, Bar Pins, etc.

Also a Fine Line in Gold Filled Goods

LURCHIN & LURCHIN
THE QUALITY JEWELERS
UNDER THE AVENUE HOTEL

District Watch Inspectors
E. & M. Railroads

St. Johnsbury, Vt.